What's happening at King of Kings......

Another Way to Serve Christ and Our Community!

With Covid-19 incidents declining in our area, the Hiawatha Care Center has invited King of Kings to resume Sunday afternoon worship services for its residents. Our congregation has done this for many years.

We are currently gathering a team of volunteers to assist in this important ministry.

These simple services consist of group singing, short scripture readings, a brief message or devotion and prayer.

Perhaps more important is one-to-one contact with residents who may rarely receive other visitors and sorely need the love of Christ to shine on them.

Services are held twice per month Sundays at 2 p.m. Please contact the church office or Pastor Balvanz for additional information.

Family Five is a short video lesson for all people, it includes a lesson for NOW and a question to discuss or activity to do with your family LATER.

Sunday's Family Five is titled: Expectations

For today's Family Five Talk about expectations you have in your family and what you expect to do for Easter.

Helpers Needed for Eden Project

The Eden Project is a joint effort of LCMS congregations in the Cedar Rapids area to aid individuals in replacing trees lost in last summer's derecho. It is a project of witness and mercy to our community, coordinated by King of Kings Lutheran Church. It will take place from April through October 2021. Sign-up for interested helpers begins today in the Fellowship Center.

Coming on Sunday, April 11: A Garden for Everyone

Do you like the idea of fresh produce? Want to do something fun with your kids? Feeling bad about that sunny spot in your back yard from the derecho?

- Plant a garden or set out a couple of containers.
- Learn what works best.
- Come to the first of four VineLife events at the farm of Steve and Kathy Epley
- Children and guests welcome.

Sign up at the church Welcome Center or call the church office to let the Epleys know you are planning to come.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayers

this week...

For attention to Holy Week:

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! We praise You, Father, that You have sent Your Son not in wrath but in mercy. As we enter this most holy week and meditate on the mysteries of Your great salvation, show us the answer to Your people's prayers of "Hosanna," "save now," in the suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

For those in need of healing:

Among these are: Adrienne Yokanovich, Lea Benson, Dave & Leilani Luedtke, Sherrie Buchanan, Jerry Green, Rad

Pravers for Others:

Tom Bohlken Jason Swestka

Faith Buss

Bob & Jan Fruth Jack (grandson of Bob and Pat Harris)

Finch, David Marousek, Jim Barker, Tom Bohlken, Jason Swestka, Faith Buss, Bob & Jan Fruth, Jack (grandson of Bob and Pat Harris) and Jack (grandson of Pauline Moermond). Grant them health and healing in accord with your perfect will, and sustain them in all their trials.

For order and harmony in the land:

Uphold this world in Your order. Preserve the Church and the preaching of Your Word against all enemies. Bless our homes, that parents and children may serve one another faithfully and grow in instruction and faith until life's end. Give health and wisdom to all who serve in public office, that their authority may be exercised for the benefit of our people.

For our congregation in time of pandemic:

Thank you for preserving us from harm and continue to protect us as we serve and worship our Lord. Create confidence in the hearts of the people as we go about opening our activities to more normal conditions. Fill us with joy as we witness your strong hand at work in bringing healing to a world dominated by fear and dread.

For good weather and willing volunteers:

That as we resume construction of our new ministry facility the Lord would provide good weather, so the work may be done without interruption and that he provide plentiful and willing volunteers to aid in its completion.

All these things and whatever else You know that we need, grant us, Father, for the sake of Him who died and rose again and now lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever. Amen.
